

Alyssa Cocchiola

Digital Media Developer

Alyssa is currently pursuing a major in Digital Marketing and Analytics and a minor in Visual Communications Design at Walsh University, class of 2027. Alyssa is a member of the university's esteemed Honors Program and is a staff writer for the program's newsletter, the Honorable Mention. In addition, she sings with the Walsh University Chorale, the Walsh University Chamber Singers ensemble, and with Summit Choral's Metropolitan Chorus. In addition to singing, she serves as the choir's choral scholar.

Alyssa is a CCP alumna and began singing with SCS in 2014. She has had the honor of serving as Performance Choir President and Soprano I section leader. Throughout her time in the CCP, she has had the opportunity of singing at both local and out-of-state venues such as the EJ Thomas Hall, the Akron Civic, and Goodyear Theater, The Kennedy Center, Carnegie Hall, and the Grand Ole Opry. She has additionally had the pleasure of working under the direction of Dr. Craig Jessop, Lynn Gackle, Cheryl Dupont, and Bob Chilcott.

Outside of SCS, Alyssa is a cook at Maize Valley Winery and Craft Brewery and serves as an intern for El Sistema Colorado, a free, after-school nonprofit string orchestra and music education organization in Denver.
