

Bill Wolf is the Chief Financial Officer for the law firm of Brennan, Manna & Diamond, LLC. After graduating from the University of Notre Dame with a BBA in Accounting, Bill started his career at KPMG Cleveland. In the 20+ years since leaving public practice, Bill has been VP Finance and CFO in a couple privately-owned, entrepreneurial plastics manufacturing companies in Northeast Ohio, during which time he also received his MBA from Case Western Reserve University. Bill has a proven record of driving profitable growth through strategic business planning, returns-based capital investments, bank and government financing, and sound cash flow management.

Music has always been a passion of Bill's. In addition to playing in several rock-n-roll bands in high-school, college, and post-college, Bill was an active member for many years in both the Adult Choir and the Contemporary Ensemble at St. Hilary Parish in Fairlawn, as well as a cantor. He is now a cantor at St. Mary's Parish in Hudson, where he lives with his wife, Lydia. He is excited about empowering others in the community to discover and develop their love of music through the programming offered by SCS.
