

A trained actor, director, and designer, Brandon Davies brings 20 years of professional theatre and operations experience to Summit Choral Society. He currently serves as the Theatre Technical Director for Western Reserve Academy in Hudson, OH, where he teaches and designs scenery and lighting for the theatre and dance programs. Brandon is passionate about sharing the joy of the arts, and is very excited to be a part of the team at Summit Choral Society.

Professionally, Brandon has worked for a variety of arts organizations, including West Virginia Public Theatre, The Arden Theatre (Philadelphia), Cleveland Public Theatre, Ohio Shakespeare Festival, None Too Fragile Theatre, All About Dance by Kristen, Rubber City Theatre and Porthouse Theatre.

Brandon resides in Hudson with wife Jennifer and their three children. In his spare time he loves to read, work on puzzles and Legos, and play with his kids. He is also a huge movie buff and loves to talk about movies anytime he can!
