Dawn Wilson is the Fine Arts Learning Specialist for the Akron Public Schools. In this capacity, she oversees the Fine Arts programs in grades PK through 12. Prior to this position, Dawn served in numerous schools in Akron as a choral music teacher, assistant principal, and principal. Dawn graduated from Case Western Reserve University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Music Education (Therapy). She completed her Master of Science degree in Education (Administration) at the University of Akron.

Dawn is passionate about providing opportunities for students to be exposed to and participate in the variety of Fine Arts programming available in our community. Her mission is to facilitate the development and maintenance of a lifelong appreciation for the arts.
