

Diane Kilo

Business Manager, Emeritus Director

Diane Kilo is a retired educator with 30 years of experience in Tallmadge City Schools. She holds a BS in Elementary Education and an MS in Educational Supervision from the University of Akron with a specialization in gifted education. As a gifted program coordinator and teacher, she coached and directed several creative and academic competitions, conducted in-service trainings, presented at state and national gifted education conferences and served on several district-wide committees. She joined the Board of Directors of Summit Choral Society in 2013 and previously held office as Treasurer before her election as President in 2014. She served as President of the Board from October 2014 to July 2016. She was named an Emeritus Director at the end of the 2017-2018 season and continues to serve Summit Choral Society as the Business Manager. Ms. Kilo and her children have shared many musical experiences. She has served as a cantor and choir member for her church and performed in several community theater musical productions, often with her children. Ms. Kilo has been involved with Summit Choral Society since January 2004 when she joined the Masterworks Chorale. Both of her children participated in the Children's Choir Program for several years, and her son now sings along with her in the Metropolitan Chorus.
