

Emily Garlock
Advanced Choir Director

Emily Garlock, Advanced Choir Director, is currently in her 17th year teaching Choral Music. She works at Brecksville- Broadview Heights High School, where she is the Music Department Chair, teaches five curricular choirs and music theory, as well as Show Choir, Drama Club, Spring Musical, and Assistant Marching Band.

In her tenure at BBH, her choirs have been awarded "Best Chamber Ensemble", "Best Tenor Section", and "Best Percussion Accompaniment" at the Smoky Mountain Music Festival in Gatlinburg, TN. Mrs. Garlock has experience with orchestral conducting as the BBHHS choirs and orchestras have performed the Mozart Requiem in both the Cleveland area at St. Stanislaus as well as St. Michael's in Chicago. She also regularly conducts pieces with the orchestra at BBH. Emily has artistically and musically directed dozens of concerts in her tenure as music educator including adult choirs, church choirs, jazz, show, and children's choirs. Professionally, Mrs. Garlock has performed with the Cleveland POPS Orchestra Chorus under the direction of Bill Zurkey, performing for artists such as Donna McKechnie, Jodi Benson, Stephanie J. Block, and Michael Feinstein. Mrs. Garlock has served on the board of Ohio Choral Directors' Association, and has multiple articles published in the national music education magazine, TRIAD, and has been nominated as a finalist for the first inaugural Akron Symphony's Music Educator of the Year Award. She has been a part of Summit Choral Society for 10 years starting as an accompanist. She now teaches the Advanced Choir and A Cappella, Movie Music, and Broadway extension choirs. Emily enjoys her *limited* downtime having season tickets for the Cleveland Guardians and Cleveland Browns, as well as season tickets to Playhouse Square's Broadway season. She resides in Medina with her husband, Scott.
