Akron, OH – Summit Choral Society is proud to announce the Grace Wakulchik sing with me Fund. Ms. Wakulchik’s leadership in both Akron Children’s Hospital and Summit Choral Society has resulted in a sustained and dynamic relationship between the two organizations. Grace was recognized for her support as Honorary Chair at choral•ography in 2018, the annual benefit event for Summit Choral Society. She was instrumental in securing passionate members to serve on the SCS Board of Directors from Akron Children’s Hospital. “We cannot thank her enough for her support of our mission and the many children who benefit from the music programming we provide. She is passionate about making Akron a better place and it starts with the kids,” says Shara L. Cocchiola, Executive Artistic Director.

sing with me is a comprehensive early childhood music program for caretakers and children from birth to 5 years of age, serving 30+ families from the greater Akron area. Children in this program advance in a variety of cognitive and motor skills through playing instruments, musical games, and singing in a fun-filled, positive environment. “In these classes, little ones and their families bond through music. It’s wonderful to see the joy-filled room,” says Heather Cooper, Principal Conductor for Summit Choral Society.
