

JACINTO A. NUNEZ

Jacinto is a partner in the Akron office of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, and is licensed in the States of Ohio and Florida. He advises clients on many aspects of commercial real estate transactions, including acquiring and selling real estate; ground, retail, industrial and office leasing; development; financing; solar, oil and gas leasing and title; and other real estate matters. In addition to his general real estate practice, Jacinto is actively involved in the firm's economic incentives practice, representing developers, operating business and political subdivisions in economic development matters.

Jacinto is a member of the Ohio State Bar Association (OSBA) and serves as an officer of the OSBA Real Property Section Council. He also is a member of the board of directors of the Rotary Club of Akron.

Prior to practicing law, Jacinto taught K-5 vocal and instrumental music for ten years with the Barberton City Schools, and also served as music director of churches in Cuyahoga Falls and Tallmadge, Ohio.

Jacinto received his J.D. magna cum laude from the University of Akron School of Law, where he was a citations editor and an assistant editor of the Akron Law Review. He also earned a Master of Music Education and a Master of Music Performance from the University of Akron. He received his B.M. (trombone) from the University of Rochester Eastman School of Music.