

Jessica Bell

Bel Canto, Tiny Pops Choir

Mrs. Bell is an experienced teacher, private instructor and church musician. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Music and Master's degree in Choral Music Education at the University of Akron. Mrs. Bell taught with the Ohio Conservatory for eight years, focusing on ear-training, solfege, voice and early musicianship to children of all ages. She has also taught choral performance, band, and has been a preschool early music teacher. She holds membership in the ACDA, NAFME, and OCMEA. Jessica is currently employed at Glenwood Intermediate School where she teaches music. She also works as a private instrumental and voice instructor, performs as a vocalist, and has been a member of the Blossom Festival Chorus. Mrs. Bell, along with her three beautiful daughters, resides in Akron.

Email: jbell@summitchoralsociety.org