

Nancy Dustin

OECConnection

Nancy was born in Zanesville, Ohio, but was raised in Akron. She comes from a family of seven children, who all reside in the area. She met her husband in 1984 while attending college and married in 1990. They are the parents of one daughter who is a senior at Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio. Nancy has had a successful career in sales and sales management, the last 15 years with OECConnection and holds the title of National Sales Director. She also held positions with Ricoh, Savin and Gestetner. Due to Nancy's sales success throughout her career, she has earned 25 Chairman's/President's Club awards. She believes strongly in helping young adults early in their careers and has served as a mentor many times. Nancy enjoys golfing, hiking, biking and cooking.