

Lori Pesci is the Director of Public Safety for the Summit County Executive's Office, where she provides technical assistance and policy direction on criminal justice, homeland security, and public safety matters. In addition, she oversees the county-wide public safety radio system, the Division of Animal Control, and the county's Emergency Management Agency, which assists first responders and community stakeholders with planning, coordination, and response activities during emergencies and events.

Lori earned her bachelor's and master's degrees in criminal justice from Youngstown State University. She is also a graduate of the Cleveland Marshall College of Law at Cleveland State University and an alum of the Naval Postgraduate School's Center for Homeland Defense and Security. Currently, she serves as a regional representative on the National Criminal Justice Association. She lives in Akron with her two rescue dogs, Gus and Sherman.