

RAQUEL J. TEARE

Raquel Teare is an adjunct faculty member and the coordinator of staff accompanying at the University of Mount Union. Prior to this, Raquel served as a long-time adjunct faculty member at Kent State University where she taught class piano and worked as a collaborative pianist. She earned her Bachelor of Music degree in piano performance at Kent State University in 1992. She then obtained her Masters degree in piano performance from Bowling Green State University, as well as an M.Ed. in community counseling from KSU in 2000. A much sought after accompanist, chamber, church and freelance musician, Raquel has performed throughout Northeast Ohio, and has often collaborated with duo-piano partner, Brent Schloneger. She resides with her family in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, where she gives private piano instruction and serves as pianist/organist for Bethany United Church of Christ.