

Sachi Argabright (she/her) is a biracial Japanese American woman who is passionate about singing and music and is a resident of Northeast Ohio. She received her education from Medina City Schools (high school degree) and sang in concert choirs, show choir, musicals, and a cappella groups throughout the years. She also received her BSA in Accounting and MBA in Finance at the University of Akron where she sang in the Concert Choir her freshman year. Upon attaining her undergraduate degree, Sachi began a full-time position at The J.M. Smucker Company within the Corporate Finance department. During her 12 years at Smucker, she has held various positions in areas such as the Coffee and Pet Strategic Business Areas, Investor Relations, Financial Planning and Analysis, and Strategic Projects. Sachi was recently promoted to the Senior Director of Finance for the Sweet Baked Snacks Strategic Business Area, where she supports the strategy and financial decision making for the Hostess snack cake and Voortman cookie brands (~$1B in annual net sales). Sachi has also served as the Co-Founder and Chair of the employee resource group supporting Asians, Pacific Islanders and Allies at Smucker (CAPIA), has acted as the Lead Recruiter for Smucker Finance and Accounting internships at The University of Akron, and was awarded Finance Department Mentor of the Year in 2021 & 2020.