

Diane Cardew
Emeritus Director

Diane (Kilo) Cardew joined the Board of Directors of Summit Choral Society (SCS) in 2013 and held office as Treasurer before her election as President in 2014. She served as President of the Board from October 2014 to July 2016. Diane was honored as an Emeritus Director in June 2018 before leaving the Board to join the staff, where she served as the Business Manager, grant writer and Metropolitan Chorus coordinator until December 2020. Prior to her employment with SCS, she taught and coordinated gifted programs for Tallmadge City Schools for 30 years, while also coaching and directing several creative and academic competitions, conducting in-service trainings and presenting at state and national gifted education conferences. Diane is currently employed as a Business Operations Coordinator for the American Red Cross. She has been involved with SCS since 2004 when she started singing with the Masterworks Chorale. She continues to sing with SCS in the Metropolitan Chorus, along with her son, who is an alumnus of SCS's Children's Choir Program.
