SUMMIT CHORAL SOCIETY AKRON CITY GOSPEL SINGERS- AKRON, Ohio

A PANDEMIC WON'T STOP THE PRAISE! Starting on October 3rd, and select Saturdays following, the Akron City Gospel Singers (ACGS) will continue to make a joyful noise remotely through video technology through virtual masterclasses, remote rehearsals and more, all under the direction of ACGS conductor, Jaron M. LeGrair.

"I'm so glad that technology still lets us connect with one another. No, it doesn't replace genuine face-to-face conversations and hugs and all that, but it still does my heart good to see those I work with through a screen so that we can still have some semblance of normalcy", LeGrair says. He continued, "I'm grateful for Summit Choral Society's leadership in thinking of the community and keeping everyone this choir serves in mind as we all navigate through this unique, but temporary, time."

These interactive sessions will take place on Zoom and will replace the scheduled in-person rehearsals and socials that Summit Choral Society had originally planned for the 2020-2021 Season. Sessions will be a combination of gospel singing masterclasses that survey and explore the execution of singing Gospel music. Jaron M. LeGrair is a prolific singer of multiple vocal mediums and voice teacher, specializing in Gospel music. He, along with the group's accompanist Marquis Brown, will be guiding attendees through basic vocal production, singing solos in Gospel songs, harmonizing and much more during Akron City Gospel Singer virtual sessions.
