Summit Choral Society Performed in Nashville at The Grand Ole Opry

Grand Ole Opry welcomes visiting student groups to perform in Opry Plaza

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – (April 27th, 2019) – The Grand Ole Opry® presented by Humana® showcases talented students through their Music City Performance Program. Summit Choral Society was welcomed by the Grand Ole Opry® and its' patrons to the April 27th, 2019 performance.

The Music City Performance Program has become an exciting part of the Opry experience for visiting performing student groups. This program gives students an amazing performance experience at one of the nation's iconic music establishments. "Being able to showcase talented students from across the country is very rewarding and fosters excellence in their musical development curriculum" said Wayne Chandler, Director of Sales GOO Entertainment Group.

Summit Choral Society performed for 20 minutes prior to attending the world's longest running radio show. In addition to performing they received:

- Commemorative performance poster
- Recognition during the Grand Ole Opry Performance

Having Summit Choral Society helped to create a special night at the Opry for them, as well as attendees of the April 27th, 2019 performance.
